SHOOT FIFTEEN MILES

Their guns go off with a terrible roar and carry three-quarters of a ton of metal 15 miles. Later on three more of these monsters are fired, giving us eight, 14-inch guns which will bombard the enemy's positions, in addition to a large number of smaller monitors of all shapes and sizes.

Then the new fleet began to settle to its work, salving forth day by day and bombarding the enemy's positions, while balloon ships and airplanes "spotted" for them. The Turks and the Huns then began to grasp the fact that we had more powerful monitors of the surface of the sea, and that the great effort which had led to the retirement of our High Seas Fleet had been wasted after all.

The big monitors are as steady as a rock at sea, but they are no boats of roses to live in, for the coal dust settles everywhere, and there are almost impossible to keep clean. They are not really ships at all, but floating gun platforms. Nevertheless, they have proved a great success. You will have some strange experiences if you try to board one in a rough sea. The waves break over the projecting sides just below the surface, causing a long line of racing surf.

British Hospital Ship Sinks
Struck Mine in Mid-Channel—Collier Lusitania Coming To The Rescue Meets Same Fate

Dover, November 18.—The British hospital ship Anglia, with about three hundred wounded men aboard, in addition to the crew, nurses and attendants, 385 in all, bound from France to Dover, was sunk by a mid-channel yesterday, and sank in a very short time. Nearly 100 men, most of them seriously wounded and in their cot, lost their lives.

The Anglia was the ship that conveyed the King back from France on the occasion of his recent journey. The mines are supposed to be ones that broke loose during recent storms.

The sinking of the Anglia, although the first case in the war of a hospital ship meeting disaster while carrying wounded, has caused great anxiety in the public mind. It was supposed that the English Channel was entirely free of danger from mines. The newspapers indulge in much speculation as to the cause of the explosion that they must have been German mines. The Anglia had 300 cot cases aboard. When the vessels reached her she was badly down by head and her propellers were racing. Her stern was so low in the water that one of the rescuing vessels was able to pass under her and forty men dropped aboard.

The crew of the Lusitania gave vivid narratives of the disaster, according to which, after terrific explosion, the bows of the Anglia seemed to melt away into the sea lapped by rails. She surged forward, however, in a vain attempt to reach shore. Soon many boats came to the rescue, including the German gunboat, the Lusitania. These watching the scene saw the soldiers coming up from below, assembling on deck, and calmly waiting the order to pass in to the boats.

A rescuing vessel ran right under the sinking steamer's stern and immediately the crew set to work. Great difficulties, to transfer the wounded, were overcome. Every moment the stern of the doomed vessel rose higher, and the water came over the bows, though about to turn turtle, but still the crew worked on. Some of the wounded, unable to keep their footing on the sloping deck, fell into the sea and were picked up by the rescuers. Others jammed overhead. All the while the nurses worked with splendid devotion with the crew to transfer their patients to the boats. The difficulties were augmented by the racing propeller, which gave a circular motion to the Anglia.

The end came with dramatic suddenness. With wounded soldiers and doctors, nurses and sailors still clinging to the stern, the vessel appeared for a moment to stand on her bows, then suddenly went under, but left the Red Cross flag flying at her mast six feet above the water, marking the fatal spot.

Record Rush to the Colors in London

London, November 17.—With only a few days left before Lord Derby's recruiting scheme gives way to a form of conscription, men stormed London's recruiting offices yesterday until the war record was reached. Men with silk hats and men and boys jostled one another to be enrolled as soon as possible, but they came in batches from the same business house. This rush to the colors was not confined to any section, but from every part of the north, came reports of record enlistments.

QUEER NEW SHIPS OF BRITISH NAVY

Have Enabled Us to Regain the Command of the Sea at the Dardanelles—They Are Immune From Submarines

How Britain solved the German submarine problem to the Mediterranean by the invention of a new type of warship is entertainingly told by F. Ashmead Bartlett in the London Times. A few German torpedoes well aimed had forced the British fleet to retire to sheltered harbors, protected by mine and net. The Turks and the Huns then began to grasp the fact that we had more powerful monitors of the surface of the sea, and that the great effort which had led to the retirement of our High Seas Fleet had been wasted after all.

The big monitors are as steady as a rock at sea, but they are no boats of roses to live in, for the coal dust settles everywhere, and there are almost impossible to keep clean. Made Money During The Dull Times

Winnipeg, November 11.—In spite of the poor grain crop last year, the Grain Growers' Grain company had the best year in its history, President T. A. Creaner announced to the annual shareholders' meeting, at which nearly 500 farmer shareholders were in attendance, that the net profit on the year's operations ending August 31 were $226,963.08. A dividend of 10 per cent, totalling $86,000, has been declared and will be paid out to the farmer shareholders shortly before the annual meeting. Following the regular policy of the company, the sum of $139,969 has been transferred to the reserve fund, which now totals $349,000. The total paid up capital of the concern is now $567,432, being an increase of $86,000. The volume of grain handled last year was 16,831,043 bushels.

PHILIP ESTABLISHED.

President Creaner's report was exceedingly optimistic and indicated that the company has profited by its nine years' experience and was now firmly established on a business basis. The splendid financial statement was due in no small part to the maintenance of the expenses following the outbreak of the war.

The outstanding feature of the president's address was an explanation of the success of the Grain Growers' Grain Company, of which the Grain Growers' Grain company is the controlling stockholder.

PHILIP IN EXPORT.

Previous to the last year the experience of the company in the export business had been very unfortunate, their losses two years ago having totalled practically $24,000. The Grain Growers' Grain company, however, was reorganized last year and placed under the management of H. Stempert. The result of the year's operations, closing August 31, was that the Grain Growers' Grain company made a net profit of $351,000, having in one year redeemed all the previous export losses and the company is now in a position to export grain.

ELEVATORS PAID WELL.

Another interesting phase of the president's address was the statement that the company had made a good profit on the operation of the Manitoba government elevators during the past year. The Manitoba government elevators, operated by the company, shows a satisfactory profit as well as the commission department. The company's elevator department, through which latter is handled lumber, flour, binder twine and a large number of commodities, shows a profit of $100,000. The company has operated at Fort William for the past two years at a loss, showed a handsome profit.

The company met with some losses during the past year, one of the chief being in the conduct of the trading department.

Mr. Creaner stated that the company had decided to open a livestock commission department in the spring.

Serbs Forced to Retreat; Allies Successful On Two Fronts

Attacks of 20,000 Bulgarians Force Defectors to Abandon Positions—French have Won Striking Victory After Two Days' Battle

Athens, November 18.—Five thousand Serbs who have been decimated by the Bulgarians have been forced to abandon their positions and are retreating on Priep, according to advices from Saloniki.

The Athens correspondent confirms the re-occupation of Tirovo by the Bulgarians, a victory regarded as of much importance because it may result in the cutting of lateral communications of the Serbian front.

Paris, November 18.—Important successes both for the French and British forces in Serbia are reported by the Athens correspondent of the Havas Agency. According to the information, which the correspondent says is unofficial, the Bulgarians have lost the town of Kastrinovo to the French and have been defeated by the British on the Valodovo-Rabrovo front.

The correspondent, whose dispatch was filed at yesterday, adds that according to the latest news received by Athens newspapers the French have a striking victory over the Bulgarians on the Tihovikovo-Selovo-Krushevica front. The battle was waged for two days. The French were greatly encouraged, but used their 3-inch guns with great effect. The Bulgarians are said to have sustained such heavy losses that they are unable to continue the fight, and are retreating to the right bank of the Varad river.

A VOICE FROM P.E.I.

Big Changes Predicted in Fiscal Policy of Warring Nations

It is not often that we hear from our sister Province by the sea, Prince Edward Island, on the questions of trade and fiscal policies. When the whole of Canada, particularly the Western provinces, was greatly wrought up by the changes proposed in 1911, we do not remember having seen many references to the attitude of the people of the people of the "Province by the Sea," on the questions at issue.

Apparently the editor of the Charlottetown "Guardian," from whom we quote below, is a close student of economic history, and while his views may not find favor in the West, it will be interesting to our readers to know the minds of some of their fellow citizens by the sea are working with respect to trade questions.

The following article from the Charlottetown "Guardian" of a few weeks ago, indicates the views of a large school of economists:

"The old Manchester school of political economists has all powerful in its day. It was the outcome of the rise of the middle classes to political power in Britain, in England more particularly. Up till 1830 the middle classes in England had practically no say in the government of the country. Then came the industrial revolution, and the middle classes in Britain represented, for the most part, the middlemen in business, the men who make their living by purchasing the products of the factory and the workshop, and who sell them to the retail shopkeepers. So long as the markets of a country are protected the middlemen are restricted to a legitimate percentage of profit. Labor demands a fair wage, and the consumer will not pay more than he can afford, or at all events buy more than he can afford, and so prices are kept reasonably moderate, commensurate with the just remuneration of labor. The Manchester school of politicians set themselves the task of cutting the price of labor, and the only way they could do so successfully was to bring in the products of foreign lands and the raw materials of the manufacturing industries into Great Britain at the lowest possible prices. The middlemen in Great Britain have prospered and waxed mighty since the time of the Manchester school. The millions of the last fifty years have been middlemen who bought in the cheapest market and sold in the dearest. Many of the British industries have gone to the wall because of the encouragement of cheap foreign-made goods, and Germany gained the financial strength she enjoyed through protecting her own workmen's labor while underselling the labor of the British workman. One of the outcomes of the war will be to bring the British workman into his own, to do away, practically for ever, with unrestricted free trade, and to substitute therefor fair trade on a basis of tariff reform. This is assured. Cobdenism is on its death-bed and will not survive the war. Mr. Joseph Chamberlain was the prophet of the new school of tariff reform, and he is now a martyr. It is reasonable to believe that the war has shattered the records of many prophets, and it is a bold man to predict that fiscal or other political questions now. It is safe to say.

While it is too early to make bold statements regarding the ultimate effect of the war on the fiscal policies of Great Britain, the Budget recently brought down in the British House of Commons may well cause concern in the minds of those who have always been stout defenders of the policy of free trade.

"MADE-IN-CANADA" AND THE PRESS

Annual Conclave of Newspapermen Discuss "Made-in-Canada" Campaign

At the recent annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association, held in Toronto, considerable discussion took place regarding the "Made-in-Canada" idea, and the big campaign which was launched a year ago. The newspaper proprietors and editors present were almost unanimously in favor of the "Made-in-Canada" idea. "Industrial Canada," the official organ of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association, expresses its appreciation of the assistance rendered by the members of the Canadian Press Association. It says:

"The members of the Canadian Press Association deserve and have received the thanks of Canadian manufacturers for the whole-hearted and very effective support which they gave and are still giving to the 'Made-in-Canada' policy."

"When the newspapers, with splendid unanimity, took up the 'Made-in-Canada' cry, supported it vigorously and put it into practice, they performed a distinct national service and in addition benefited themselves, and according to the degree which they continue their support will the welfare of the country and their own interest be assured."

"After the war the United States will perhaps be the richest country in the world. That means that Canada will have along the 4,000 mile boundary a number of competing industries which will have immense supplies of money, large organizations and great numbers of skilled employees. At the present time the chemists and technical experts of the United States are using their utmost ingenuity to perfect devices and processes which they hope will make their country the leading manufacturing nation of the world, and it is with their powerful neighbor that we must compete in the coming industrial battle. Canadian manufacturers will have to fight geography, they will be handicapped by lack of capital and in almost every way they will be placed at a disadvantage with manufacturing firms of the United States. Consequently, it is of no small importance that the 'Made-in-Canada' campaign should be supported vigorously."

In the last nine months the value of the goods imported into Canada for consumption was $303,000,000. For a similar period of the preceding year, the value of goods imported into Canada for consumption was $398,000,000. Consequently, since the "Made-in-Canada" campaign was started, our purchases abroad have diminished by $95,000,000 and it is reasonable to claim that the "Made-in-Canada" campaign is responsible for at least a part of this decrease.

While it is too early to make bold statements regarding the ultimate effect of the war on the fiscal policies of Great Britain, the Budget recently brought down in the British House of Commons may well cause concern in the minds of those who have always been stout defenders of the policy of free trade.

THE MARKETING PROBLEM.

Every man, who is a farmer and a thoughtful man, will read the following extract from Hoard's Dairyman, and will be able to apply it to this western country. But Hoard's Dairyman is printed in the United States, and is speaking with regard to conditions there. The farmers of Alberta seem to think they have a monopoly of this sort of thing, but such is not the case, as this article shows:

"The farmers of this country (U.S.A.) produce annually a crop for which they receive $9,000,000,000, and for which it is said the ultimate consumer pays $27,000,000,000. Or, to express it in this wise: The American farmer today is doing business on a thirty-five cent dollar, and the consumer of his products pays one hundred cents for the same amount of agricultural products for which the producer receives but thirty-five cents. Owing to the lack of some central, directing intelligence, there is an enormous amount of waste, especially in perishable products. At times one hundred ears of fruit or vegetables are sent to a market which can consume but ten, and ten are sent to a market that can use one hundred. Foodstuffs are shipped for long distances only to be reshipped and consumed in the vicinity in which they were grown. Our storage and transportation facilities are first swamped, then starved; markets are unstable and demoralized; produce is allowed to waste and rot in the fields and consumers are compelled to pay exorbitant prices. Under the present manner of marketing, the producer receives too little, hence he seeks to lessen his losses by producing less; the consumer pays too much and tries to cut down his expenses by consuming less; the railroads, having less to transport, charge more to make up for the loss of tonnage; the dealer charges a larger profit to make up for the smaller sale; and here we go round and round in a vicious circle getting nowhere, the circle growing more vicious all the while. Neither the railroads, nor the commission men, nor the wholesalers, nor the retailers, should be charged with all the blame. Both the producer and consumer are entitled to their share of it. The producer needs to be taught the best manner, place, and time to market his crop; how to classify, arrange, grade and pack it to meet the requirements of the trade; and the consumer needs to be taught better purchasing methods and to distinguish between high prices and expensive service."

A TRAGEDY.

Speaking of the sudden death of Hon. Mr. Montague, in Manitoba, last week, one of the ministers in the late Roblin Government, the Toronto News has this to say: "There are the shadows of tragedy over the career of Hon. W. H.

Montague. He was singularly gifted. He had a fine taste in books and he had read wisely. He was happy in quotation from the best writers of prose and verse. He had a voice of sympathetic quality, musical and sonorous. Many passages in his speeches had elegance and distinction. He had fluency without wordiness and eloquence without tawdriness. He had humor, too, force in attack and discipline under attack. It has been said by a political opponent who sat in the House of Commons for many years, and was himself a fine speaker, that the best speech he ever heard in the Chamber was delivered by Dr. Montague. Unlike many political speakers, he spoke as well on literary and general topics as on purely political questions. A Canadian, a patriot, loving public life, able, accomplished, ambitious and with great natural aptitude for public affairs, he should have been a national leader. If there had not been something lacking he could have been Prime Minister. But there were defects that marred and actions that destroyed the fair promise of the opening years. Only men who deserve can retain the confidence of the people. Talk as we like in the fury of partisan controversy, there is a high average of integrity in public life and nothing else endures. "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches and loving favor rather than riches and gold." It is not suggested that Dr. Montague loved riches. In his later years he had acquired honorable wealth, and no one could be more happy in domestic, social and personal relationships. But in politics he did not remember that "a man of understanding straight his going." So all over Canada today men will speak of him who was so brilliant in life and so lonely at death, with a sorrow that is close to tears, not so much because he is gone as for what he might have been."

INSTALLMENT BONDS.

The Calgary Albertan said yesterday: "The mayor after careful study has come to the conclusion that the city would do better by taking serial bonds instead of the bonds which provide for a sinking fund, and he gives his reasons, which are convincing, because the main ones are: The experience of the city of Calgary. The Albertan believes that the best administered cities now insist upon the bond which the city has. The school board bond is the installment bond. The mayor is right. This is another instance where Calgary is following in the footsteps of Red Deer, as our bonds have always been installment bonds, and we would not have any other."

A cry goes out for all cities and towns to organize to take care of their returned wounded soldiers from the front. An excellent idea. But why should the rest of the province organize for this purpose? According to the Calgary papers, almost every soldier at the front came from Calgary. We venture to say that the Calgary papers will not be so anxious to claim every returned wounded hero, but will willingly divide them up with the rest of the province where they properly belong.

In Vancouver, Calgary and other cities a movement is on foot to displace with the services of all single men employees as a gentle hint that they should enlist. Why, bless your heart, Red Deer has not had a single man on its pay roll for months. Every employee of the city is a married man and head of a family.

Nine Good Reasons

Why You Should Subscribe to the Canadian Patriotic Fund to the Extent of Your Ability.

1. You owe to your country, and to the Empire of which we are a part, either to fight yourself or help to make it possible for others to fight in this supreme struggle.
2. As a Canadian you have enjoyed the protection and privileges of British citizenship and have never yet been called upon in the defence of the Empire.
3. The Mother Country has for years practically borne the burden of your protection alone.
4. In this hour of trial we desire Great Britain to realize that every Canadian is supporting and upholding her cause.
5. The war in which we are engaged is a righteous cause, a struggle for truth, liberty, and for the sacredness of treaties and the given word.
6. If you can't go yourself, you can help to make it possible for others to go by guaranteeing that their families will be provided for in their absence.
7. The object of the Canadian Patriotic Fund is to make provision for all families of soldiers going from Canada to take part in the present war.
8. Those who have gone to the front are making great sacrifices than anything we can do at home.
9. An unparalleled crisis in the world's history calls for supreme sacrifice on our part. We must do our duty. We must fight or pay.

Canadian War Loan Offered to Public

The War Loan Will Be For $50,000,000, And Will Be Issued at 97%, and on Interest at Five Per Cent.

Ottawa, November 21.—Hon. W. T. White, minister of finance, tonight gave the following brief memorandum in regard to the war loan of $50,000,000, the details in regard to which will be officially announced by the minister by way of advertisements in the press on Monday. "The Canadian War Loan is now offered for public subscription. Particulars of the price and terms of the issue, with full information as to the mode of subscribing, are contained in the prospectus which will appear in all the press today. The government confidently appeals to the Canadian people to support this loan and thus further demonstrate the strength, unity and solidarity of the empire, and our inviolable determination to prosecute the war to a victorious conclusion. The foregoing statement was all that was given out 'officially' by the department of finance, but it is known that the Canadian war loan will be for $50,000,000 and subscriptions will be received and payments made at any chartered bank in this country. The loan will be issued at 97% with payments as follows: 10 per cent on application, 74 per cent on January 8, 20 per cent on February 1, 20 per cent on March 1, 20 per cent on April 1, and 20 per cent on May 1. The installments may be paid in full any time after January 3. A full half year's interest will be paid on June 1, 1916. Application will be made to list the issue on the Montreal and Toronto stock exchanges. Recognized financial houses will be allowed a commission of one-quarter of one per cent on all allotments made. The subscription lists are to be closed during December. The loan will be on interest at five per cent. The bonds will be issued in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. It is believed here that the confidence of the minister in the success of the loan will be fully justified, and that before the end of November it will be over-subscribed. Already three subscriptions of $1,000,000 have been announced. The Imperial Oil Company, the Canadian branch of the Ford Motor Car company, a western insurance company, name not yet divulged, have each announced their intention of subscribing one million dollars. It is understood that the banks and financial institutions throughout the country have all promised to participate in the loan, while subscribers of small amounts will run into thousands."

Saw 133 Moose

(Truro News).

Mr. J. Harold MacMurray, secretary of the New Brunswick Guides' association, has returned from a successful hunting trip at Jack's Narrows in the Clarendon district.

While Mr. Doran is serving his king and country in khaki with the 55th battalion, Harry Lacey is in charge of his hunting camps and he acted as guide for Mr. MacMurray. In the fourteen days he was in the woods Mr. MacMurray saw no less than 133 moose, 76 being cows, 17 calves and 40 bulls. He also saw 10 doe deer and 2 bucks. Mr. MacMurray, who is 32 years old, shot his 133rd moose while on the trip, picking out an animal with antlers spreading 52 1/2 inches from a herd of half a dozen. It was the best head of sixteen that Mr. MacMurray has secured in his career as a hunter.

ANNUAL MEETING OF CURLERS

J. M. Campbell Elected President

A large company of devotees of the game gathered in the City Hall, Tuesday evening, to discuss prospects and organize for the coming winter.

In the absence of President A. R. Gibson, now Lieut. Gibson of the 6th Battalion, at present with a draft from that battalion at Shorncliffe, awaiting transference to the scene of action, Vice-President J. M. Campbell occupied the chair and submitted the president's report.

Twenty-four members of last year's club, besides President "Sandy," have done the khaki, and are doing their bit in or preparing for the trenches. Despite, however, the loss of these patriots, and the possibility on account of existing conditions of a number of curlers not playing this winter, a very optimistic outlook was held out for a very successful 1915-16 season. Financial conditions in the opinion of the executive, did not warrant the presentation of individual prizes to members of the rink winning the various trophies last year.

Secretary-Treasurer J. M. Mann presented the minutes of the last annual meeting and the financial report of the club.

The election of officers resulted as follows:
Hon. Patron—E. Michener, M.P.P.
Hon. President—A. R. Gibson.
President—J. M. Campbell.
Vice-President—W. J. Stephenson.
Executive—R. B. Welliver, H. Clarke, T. A. Gaetz, W. A. Moore and H. Wallace.

The provincial hospital for Red Deer this winter proved the centre of considerable discussion. That Red Deer was the logical centre for this big annual gathering of curlers, and could in all probability carry it this year, was the opinion of those present, but doubt was expressed by some as to the wisdom of handling with the present ice accommodation, which might be a story to it being held here in future years. The matter was finally left in the hands of a committee composed of the president and executive.

Special arrangements for soldiers training in the city in connection with curling will be made by the executive.

H. H. Humber urged the stimulation of friendly contests between local rinks and those from neighboring towns, and offered to present a trophy for such a competition. The suggestion met with the unanimous favor of the meeting, and the contests for this cup will probably feature this winter's play.

The social section of the gathering, following the distribution of raffle tickets, was opened by solo by P. E. Kent and Ing. Taylor. The T. A. Gaetz cup, won by G. H. Lindsay's rink, was presented by the donor. Previous to his presentation speech, he submitted a resolution conveying greetings and good wishes to members of the club now serving the colors, and received with repeated and hearty cheers.

Following a finely rendered duet by Messrs. Todd and Taylor, G. W. Greene was called on for an address. Mr. Greene responded with a stirring oration on patriotism, associating his theme with the purpose of the gathering through the fact that curling was essentially a Scotch game and the Scotch are dominant factors in the present contest for world liberty against the Hun. Concluding, he dwelt on the disastrous result universally, even to Germany, of an alliance with the Hun, and the vital necessity for the continuance of British liberty of an allied victory. In conclusion, he eloquently urged the enlistment, if they had not done so already, of any able-bodied independent men among the audience.

Skip Geo. Lindsay, after the conclusion of the address, was then presented with the Stone cup, the second token during the evening of his prowess on the ice last winter.

With many witty and humorous comments on the business partner, the donor of the Payne cup, G. W. Greene did the honors in connection with this trophy, which was delivered to the safe keeping of

Western Canada is Experiencing Trade Revival

John Downey, of A. Macdonald Co., Returns From Trip to East

Money Said to Be Plentiful in Both the City and Country.

That the A. Macdonald company, the big wholesale grocers, are at present experiencing a big trade revival is the statement of John Downey, the local manager, who returned on Sunday last from a visit to Winnipeg. At St. Paul, he said, the returns were the largest in four years, at Leithbridge the business had been very much in excess of that of a year ago, at Moose Jaw there had been a fifty per cent. increase, and at all points there is a very favorable comparison with previous years.

The buying of Christmas goods, states Mr. Downey, is of a very free character, the merchants apparently anticipating very active trading on the part of the public. This is a particularly good feature, as the local wholesale houses did not buy Christmas goods so heavily as in previous years, and consequently those who delay their orders until the eleventh hour may find themselves out of stock of those lines that are greatly in demand.

Freezeable goods are in great demand, the merchants generally taking advantage of the mild weather to secure their winter requirements. They find that the heated car service is not a very satisfactory way of handling bottled goods, especially in the case of the more perishable commodities.

Regarding the various lines of groceries, Mr. Downey says navy beans are scarce and high. The Ontario crop proved a failure, and the California, Michigan, Hungarian, Korean, and Japanese varieties are either cleaned up or their exportation is prohibited. Sugar has made a further advance of 13c, but flour has steadied down to the same price as before the war, with no immediate prospect of change.

Money at the present time, says Mr. Downey, is quite plentiful in both city and country, and in the last few weeks many debts of over a year's standing have been liquidated. Merchants throughout the country seem to have been successful in persuading farmers to dispose of sufficient grain to pay their bills.

German Lines Grow Weaker, Say Russians

Drilling of Russia's Own Recruits is Proceeding Rapidly on All Sides.

Petrograd, November 19.—Russian military observers are finding frequent indications that the German lines on this front are growing increasingly thin. These are furnished by reports from the fighting lines, activity from the rear, and the fact that the German lines are being broken up. As an instance, it is stated that in capturing the passage between two marshes, the Russians found the sole defense of the Germans to be two Germans with machine guns.

Drilling of the recruits with which the Russians expect to strengthen their own lines on various fronts is proceeding rapidly on all sides. Drill masters report that excellent progress is being made.

"Sub" Commander Makes His Escape

Was Interned in Denmark After His Ship Was Grounded and Was Shelled.

London, November 19.—The admiralty issued the following statement this evening: "Lieutenant Commander Layton, who commanded submarine E-13, which was destroyed in Danish waters, has escaped from the Naxos, where he was interned. He was not on parole."

On November 1st the Overseas News Agency in Berlin gave a dispatch from Copenhagen stating that Commander Layton had fled from that city, breaking his parole. The E-13 grounded on the Danish island of Saltholm in August, and it was declared by the British admiralty that the submarine had been attacked while helpless by German torpedo boats, fourteen men being killed. The remaining members of the crew are interned in Denmark.

THE SECRET OF A GOOD COMPLEXION

Did it ever occur to you that there is a reason for your sallow complexion, pimples, blackheads, and other skin blemishes? You are, when healthy, has to excrete 17 per cent. of the waste matter of the body! The pores become clogged, this poisonous waste is imprisoned and skin troubles follow.

To rid yourself of these blemishes the skin must be cured of its sluggishness. That is just what Zam-Buk does. Zam-Buk is composed of stimulating and healing herbal essences, which penetrate the skin and enable it to expel the accumulated poisonous waste matter. A clear, healthy complexion is your reward. The folly of endeavoring to cover up skin blemishes with powders and other cosmetics is quite apparent. Use Zam-Buk; remove the root cause of the trouble, and enjoy a good complexion without resorting to artificial means. Apply Zam-Buk at night when retiring, and wash with Zam-Buk soap.

Russia Arming Millions of Men

London, November 20.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Morning Post sends the following: "Russia intends to place millions of additional troops in the field, according to notification by Premier Goremykin to the Russian press, says a private dispatch from Petrograd. The Premier intimated the necessity of reinforced exertions by the nation to provide the needed equipment and munitions."

MILITARY HOSPITALS' COMMISSION

At a meeting of the Provincial Cabinet, held a few days ago, to consider the appointment of a Central Provincial Committee to work in co-operation with the Dominion Military Hospitals' Commission in connection with the problem of taking care of and providing employment for the members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force, who return to Canada during the period of the war, the following were selected: Hon. Chas. W. Fisher, of Cochrane, Speaker of the Provincial Legislature.

W. T. Henry, Mayor of the City of Edmonton.

M. C. Costello, Major of the City of Calgary.

Alexander Ross, of the city of Calgary, representing organized labor.

Hon. Mr. Fisher was named as Chairman of the Committee, to be co-located a member of the Dominion Military Hospitals' Commission.

This Central Committee held its initial meeting in Calgary on the 15th inst., and canvassed the situation thoroughly. Many suggestions were made as to the best way to handle this very serious problem, and it was the unanimous opinion of the committee that it would be impossible to take care of the situation without the active support of every citizen of Alberta.

Secretary H. Stutchbury sends out the following circular:

I have been directed by the committee to ask the co-operation of every public body in the province, and would suggest that you forthwith delay an aggressive local committee whose duty it would be to meet the returned soldiers upon their arrival and to use their every effort to place them in suitable employment and re-establish them in civil life without delay. This is a duty which we as citizens owe to the men who have risked their lives in this world war. I would be glad if you would send me the names of your local committee and their addresses as soon as they have been appointed. The provincial committee hope to be able to supply you with a list of the names of the men who will return to your district, the date of their return, and other such data as we may be able to obtain from the military authorities.

It is very important that the local organizations should be perfected without delay, as accumulation will make the problem very much more difficult.

There will be a meeting held in the City Council Chamber, Calgary, on Wednesday, the 24th of November, and in the Property Owners' Association Rooms, Masonic Hall Building, Edmonton, on the 25th, which will be addressed by the Hon. C. W. Mitchell (who attended the Inter-provincial Conference in Ottawa a short time ago), and others. It is extremely important that every municipality should be represented at these meetings. A general outline of the work that is to be done will be presented, and suggestions will be gladly received by your Central Committee at that time.

Germany's Crops Have Failed, Says New York Editor

FOOD SUPPLY CUT IN TWO

Says That Tenth Nations Have No Reserves Left.

Toronto, November 19.—"Germany's crops have failed. Only two-thirds of a crop has been harvested this year in that country and there is where the pinch comes. Ordinarily, Germany requires 200,000 Poles every season to assist in its harvest. The failure this year has been due to the shortage of labor and to the unfavorable weather conditions. This has struck at the very base of Germany's financial strength. She is now forced to pay cash for food in such neighboring countries as Switzerland and Denmark, and gradually her gold supply is being drained, leaving a smaller reserve on the strength of which paper currency may be issued. As a result, Germany's food supply has been cut in two. Her soldiers must be fed and the people behind the trenches are forced to do with regular rations. Accordingly, we are hearing of the bread riots in Berlin and the offers of peace which Germany inspires with such magnanimity."

This constituted the most startling of a series of startling and informative statements pertaining to the war made this evening by Mr. Clarence W. Barron, editor of the Wall Street Journal, who is visiting Toronto for a few days, and will speak at the Canadian Club on Monday. He visited Europe in November of last year for the express purpose of acquainting himself with the underlying principles of the great world, and the articles which came from his pen following that trip have been embodied in the well-known book, "The Audacious War."

It is Mr. Barron's opinion that Germany and Austria have reached the maximum in the strength of their forces in the trenches and in the utilization of their national resources. "They are at the point now," he said, "where they have no reserves. On the other hand, the allies were just beginning to approach their maximum strength."

Referring to the recent Anglo-French loan, Mr. Barron said that the bonds of the allied nations were being widely sold throughout the United States. This was due largely to the sympathy of the majority of the people across the line with the allies.

"The ally of the allies is the federal reserve act, combined with our workshops and steel plants," declared Mr. Barron. "Germany realizes that the base and backbone of this war is on the North American continent."

141 Battalions in Canadian Force

Ottawa, November 21.—In the Canadian Expeditionary Force there are now no less than 141 fully organized battalions. The next battalion will be the 142nd. The rapid organization of new battalions during the past few weeks has run the number from 100 to 141 within two months, thus giving some idea of the amount of work devolving on the headquarters staff in ordering, equipping and organizing the new units which are now being authorized at the rate of six or seven per week. Many of these battalions have sent draft after draft of reinforcements to the front, and some of them have been recruited up to strength two or three times over.

Are You Sending a Parcel To The Front?

All The Information You Need Regarding the Same

PARCELS MUST BE MAILED VERY SOON

Mail for Canadian soldiers in France, if it is to be delivered before Christmas, ought to leave Winnipeg before the end of this month. Post office officials say that parcels, etc., have a pretty good chance of being delivered before Christmas, things mailed after that date have a pretty poor chance. To be safe, it is advisable that persons wishing to send Christmas presents to their friends in the trenches should regard the end of this month as about the last time for mailing.

Parcels and letters for British and Canadian expeditionary forces should be mailed before Christmas. The parcels must be addressed to the rank, number, military unit, etc., and be addressed to Expeditionary Force, care of G.P.O., London, England. So that there may be no mistake in this connection, the post office has issued printed directions. They say that mail should be addressed as follows:

- (a) Regimental number.
- (b) Rank.
- (c) Name.
- (d) Squadron, battery or company.
- (e) Battalion, regiment (or other unit), staff appointment or department.
- (f) Canadian contingent.
- (g) British expeditionary force.
- (h) Army post office, London, England.

Unnecessary mention of higher formations, such as brigades, divisions, etc., is strictly forbidden, as it causes delay.

MUST HAVE DECLARATION. Every parcel must carry a customs declaration properly filled out and securely attached. There are four conditions which have to be observed in respect of every parcel. First, it must be prepaid. If there be any deficiency in the postage, a parcel cannot be forwarded. Second, it must be so completely addressed as to be reasonably sure of finding the person to whom it is sent. Parcels for soldiers which are insufficiently addressed will not be accepted by the army post office in London. Mail for civilians which is insufficiently addressed stands a good chance of being delivered. The authorities do their best to dig out the addresses. But in the case of soldiers the difficulty of finding a man without a full address is so great that the army post office simply throws out anything which does not fulfil this regulation. Third, a parcel must not in any circumstances exceed eleven pounds in weight. Fourth, it must be so packed as to be reasonably secure against the inevitable abuse to which it will be subjected in transit.

DARDANELLES PARCELS. Parcels for members of the expeditionary forces in the Dardanelles must be wrapped in cotton or some other such fabric. Parcels for the expeditionary forces in France should at least be enclosed in corrugated cardboard, tin or wood. In no circumstances should frail cardboard boxes be used. The address should be written on the cover, preferably more than once. Address tags should not be employed because they are liable to be torn off and lost.

As already stated, the Winnipeg post office officials fix December 4 as the last day for sending Christmas mail to the trenches. They point out that delivery before Christmas cannot be guaranteed in respect of mail sent away from this city as late as December 4, but it has a good chance. The reason for the uncertainty is the disorganization of the ocean mail traffic. Before the war, schedules of mail boat sailings were prepared six months in advance. It was possible to predict a mail delivery with almost mathematical accuracy. But nobody knows now what boats will be in the mail business. The last British mail arrived in a boat called the Tobasco. T. T. Howers, assistant postmaster at Winnipeg, had never heard of the vessel until he got mail "Bx" Tobasco.

For members of the expeditionary force in the Dardanelles parcels should be away from Winnipeg before November 20.

PARCEL RATES.

The rate of postage on parcels to England is 12 cents a pound, or fraction thereof, and this rate is applied to parcels addressed to soldiers who are known to be still in England. Where there is doubt as to the soldier being still in England, the French rate should be employed so as to ensure the prompt delivery of the parcel. Parcel post mail for France, Belgium, etc., must be prepaid according to the following rates:

A few words about our Cash System to be inaugurated on January 1st.

We believe, as do a great many others, that the Credit Business is one of the causes of the High Cost of Living.

Any firm doing a Credit Business has to allow a percentage of their profits for bad accounts. The cash customer pays the same price as the customer having a charge account, and therefore is paying, indirectly, that percentage.

By selling for Cash, and buying for Cash, we can eliminate this percentage, and you will derive the benefits.
